

Danny's School Day

Today, in English class, Miss Ho told the students to do their writing homework. She said, "Today's homework is what do you want to be when you grow up?"

Later at recess, Tim and Danny talked about the homework. Tim said, 'I want to be a firefighter when I grow up. Do you want to be a businessman when you grow up?' Danny replied, "I don't want to be a businessman because working in an office is boring. I like talking to people."

On their way home after school, Danny saw a tour guide talking to the visitors. She was telling the tourists about the history of different places. Danny said happily, "I know! Maybe I can be a tour guide!" Tim replied, "That's a good idea because I think you are outgoing." Danny was happy because he found his future job.

At home, he wrote a lot of things about his future job. He wishes to be a good and attentive tour guide.
